Does gender have a poetics: What difference does gender make? How does it affect writing, reading, and the functions of text in society? The Poetics of Gender is a groundbreaking collection that challenges traditional ideas about gender, Sex, and power. Born a Crime
Trevor Noah's unlikely path from apartheid South Africa to the desk of The Daily Show began with a criminal act: his birth. Trevor was born to a white Swiss father and a black Xhosa mother. Theirs was not the mixture that South African apartheid society of the 1960s—1970s allowed. Noah's childhood stories are told with all the hilarity and intellect that characterizes his adult storytelling. His stories weave together to form a moving and searingly funny portrait of a boy making his way through a damaged world in a country under siege.

Hermione Granger Saves the World
The new essays in this book make two central claims. First, for some people, the word “feminist” has been either poorly defined or even demonized. The book uses a variety of sources to showcase new methodological and theoretical movements such as feminist materialisms, intersectionality, postidentitarian ‘nomadic’ politics, gender archaeology, and relevant as ever. Written in hooks’s characteristic direct style, Feminist Theory embodies the hope that feminists can find a common language to spread the word

Epistolary Histories
